Exclusive car control training for track cars

If you want to go fast on track, you need to find and cross the limits of your track car. Having a good car control is a crucial skill needed to avoid going off track. Wheels after Work partners up with Le Centre de maîtrise du volant to organize an exclusive car control training for Track Cars. Take the wheel of one of our BMW WTCC track cars and slide your way through this amazing day with different car and weather setups.

What can you expect ?

- Exclusive event limited to 3 track cars and 6 participants
- A personal coach for each track car for maximal coaching time
- Video and telemetry analysis to improve your driving skills
- Different car and weather setups to work on your handling in different track conditions
- A team of mechanics to change the different car setups
- Breakfast, lunch, and goodbye drinks
